WHISTLE BLOWER POLICY

I. PREAMBLE

This policy is formulated to provide an opportunity to employees and an avenue to raise concerns and to access in good faith the Audit Committee, to the highest possible standards of ethical, moral and legal business conduct and its commitment to open communication, in case they observe unethical and improper practices or any other wrongful conduct in the Company, to provide necessary safeguards for protection of employees from reprisals or victimization and to prohibit managerial personnel from taking any adverse personnel action against those employees.

II. APPLICABILITY

This policy applies to all permanent employees of the Company.

III. POLICY

No adverse action shall be taken or recommended against an employee in retaliation to his disclosure in good faith of any unethical and improper practices or alleged wrongful conduct. This policy protects such employees from unfair termination and unfair prejudicial employment practices from victimization. However, this policy does not protect an employee from an adverse action which occurs independent of his disclosure of unethical and improper practice or alleged wrongful conduct, poor job performance, any other disciplinary action, etc. unrelated to a disclosure made pursuant to this policy.

IV. DEFINITIONS

1. Adverse Personnel Action

An employment-related act or decision or a failure to take appropriate action by managerial personnel which may affect the employee's employment, including but not limited to compensation, increment, promotion, job location, job profile, immunities, leaves and training or other privileges.

2. Alleged Wrongful Conduct

Alleged Wrongful Conduct shall mean violation of law, infringement of Company's Code of Conduct or ethic policies, mismanagement, misappropriation of monies, actual or suspected fraud, substantial and specific danger to public health and safety or abuse of authority.

3. Audit Committee

Audit Committee shall mean a Committee of Board of Directors of the Company, constituted in accordance with provisions of Section 177 of Companies Act, 2013 read with Clause 49 of Listing Agreement entered into by the Company with Stock Exchanges.

4. Company

Company means, "Mayur Leather Products Limited"

5. Compliance Officer

Compliance Officer means, “Company Secretary” of the Company.

6. Good Faith

An employee shall be deemed to be communicating in ‘good faith’ if there is a reasonable basis for communication of unethical and improper practices or any other alleged wrongful conduct. Good Faith shall be deemed lacking when the employee does not have personal knowledge of a factual basis for the communication or where the employee knew or reasonably should have known that the communication about the unethical and improper practices or alleged wrongful conduct is malicious, false or frivolous.

7. Managerial Personnel

Managerial Personnel shall include, Chairman, Director, all Executives at the level of Manager and above, who has authority to make or materially influence significant personnel decisions.

10. Whistle Blower / Complainant

An employee of the Company who discloses in good faith any unethical & improper practices or alleged wrongful conduct to the Head of Department or in case it involves Managerial Personnel to the Chief Executive Officer and in exceptional cases to the Audit Committee in writing. The Whistle Blower’s role is as a reporting party, he/she is not an investigator. The Whistle Blower needs to demonstrate to the Audit Committee, that there are sufficient grounds for concern with substantial and concrete evidence.

An employee who observes or notices any unethical & improper practices or alleged wrongful conduct in the Company may report the same to the Head of Department or in case it involves Managerial Personnel to the Chief Executive Officer.

V. INTERPRETATION

Terms that have not been defined in this Policy shall have the same meaning assigned to them in the Companies Act, 2013 and/or SEBI Act and/or any other SEBI Regulation(s) as amended from time to time.

VI. GUIDELINES

1. Safeguards

Harassment or Victimization:

Harassment or victimization of the complainant will not be tolerated and could constitute sufficient grounds for dismissal of the concerned employee.

Confidentiality:

Confidentiality of whistle blower shall be maintained to the greatest extent possible. Every effort will be made to protect the whistle blower's identity, subject to legal constraints.

Anonymous Allegations:

Complainants must put their names to allegations as follow-up questions and investigation may not be possible unless the source of the information is identified. Concerns expressed anonymously SHALL NOT BE usually investigated BUT subject to the seriousness of the issue raised the Audit Committee can initiate an investigation independently.

Malicious Allegations:

Malicious allegations by employees may result in disciplinary action against the concerned employee.

Appropriate communication of the mechanism:

A critical success factor for a good and effective vigil mechanism is its communication to employees, which will need to be in more than one language, including a vernacular language

2. False Allegation & Legitimate Employment Action

An employee who knowingly makes false allegations of unethical & improper practices or alleged wrongful conduct to the Audit Committee shall be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment, in accordance with Company rules, policies and procedures. Further, this policy may not be used as a defense by an employee against whom an adverse personnel action has been taken independent of any disclosure of information by him and for legitimate reasons or cause under Company rules and policies.

3. Accountabilities – Employees

- Bring to early attention of the company any improper practice they become aware of. They must have sufficient cause for concern with substantial and concrete evidence.
- Avoid anonymity when raising a concern.
- Co-operate with investigating authorities, maintaining full confidentiality.

- The intent of the policy is to bring genuine and serious issues to the fore and it is not intended for petty complaints. Malicious allegations by employees may attract disciplinary action.
- A complainant has the right to protection from retaliation. But this does not extend to immunity for complicity in the matters that are the subject of the allegations and investigation.
- In exceptional cases, where the complainant is not satisfied with the outcome of the investigation carried out by the Ombudsperson, she/he can make a direct appeal to the Chairman of the Audit Committee.

4. Accountabilities – Head of Department/ Chief Executive Officer/ Audit Committee

- Conduct the enquiry in a fair, unbiased manner. Ensure complete fact-finding.
- Maintain strict confidentiality.
- Decide on the outcome of the investigation, whether an improper practice has been committed and if so by whom.
- Recommend an appropriate course of action - suggested disciplinary action, including dismissal, and preventive measures.
- Minute Committee deliberations and document the final report.

VII. Procedures

The whistle blowing procedure is intended to be used for serious and sensitive issues. Serious concerns relating to financial reporting, unethical & improper practices or alleged wrongful conduct shall make a disclosure to the Head of Department or in case it involves Managerial Personnel to the Chief Executive Officer and in exceptional cases to the Audit Committee as soon as possible but not later than 45 consecutive calendar days after becoming aware of the same. The Departmental Head shall immediately forward Whistle Blower Report to the Chief Executive Officer of the Company. The Chief Executive Officer may inquire in respect of the Whistle Blower Report and after preliminary inquiry, if required, shall report the same to the Audit Committee.

Audit Committee shall appropriately and expeditiously investigate all whistle blower reports received. In this regard, Audit Committee, if the circumstances so suggest, may appoint a senior executive or a committee of managerial personnel to investigate into the matter and prescribe the scope and time limit therefore.

Audit Committee shall have right to outline detailed procedure for an investigation. Where the Audit Committee has designated a senior executive or a committee of managerial personnel for investigation, they shall mandatorily adhere to scope and procedure outlined by Audit Committee for investigation.

The Audit Committee or officer or committee of managerial personnel, as the case may be, shall have right to call for any information/document and examination of any employee of the Company or other person(s), as they may deem appropriate for the purpose of conducting investigation under this policy.

A report shall be prepared after completion of investigation and the Audit Committee shall consider the same. After considering the report, the Audit Committee shall determine the cause of alleged Adverse Personnel action and may order for appropriate course of action, which may inter-alia, include:

- Order for an injunction to restrain continuous violation of this policy;
- Reinstatement of the employee to the same position or to an equivalent position;
- Order for compensation for lost wages, remuneration or any other benefits, etc.
- Disciplinary action, including dismissal, if applicable, as well as preventive measures for the future.
